

The Annual Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Service of Commemoration

Sunday January 17, 2021, 3:00 p.m.

This year the Service will take place virtually. The public is invited to access a pre-recorded video as of 3:00 p.m. on Sunday, January 17 using the link: <https://federatedchurch.org/>

Organized by: The Cape Cod Chapter of the NAACP, The Federated Church of Hyannis, Barnstable No Place for Hate, Cape Cod Community College and the Cape Cod Council of Churches.

All are invited to gather virtually in celebration of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s legacy on Sunday, January 17, 2021 at 3 p.m. This special interfaith service will be accessible using the link: <https://federatedchurch.org/>

The Rev. Dr. King wrote, "The question is not whether we will be extremists but what kind of extremists we will be. Will we be extremists for hate or for love?" The service will address our community's ongoing work confronting racism and enacting equal justice as we feature recordings of Barnstable County youth speaking in a "Listening Session" this fall that was sponsored by the Barnstable No Place for Hate group. The youth speak powerfully about their first hand experiences as people of color living on the Cape. Their messages are particularly meaningful during this year that has seen such racial and social unrest.

The Service will feature music, prayers and a good will offering to benefit the Scholarship Fund of the Cape Cod Chapter of the NAACP.
